

SESSION 15 FINAL OVERVIEW

INSTRUCTOR

STEPHEN BECK PhD

Stephen is a career church planter and church planting instructor. He has served with the Redeemer Church Planting network in Canada, more recently with Greater Europe Mission in Germany. He is considered one of the "cutting edge" Greater Europe Missionaries in this regard. He is Professor of Practical Theology at Freie Theologische Hochschule in Giessen, Germany. He has also been guest lecturer at several institutions on the European continent. He is married to Susan, and they have four children. In 2011 Stephen and Susan embarked on yet another journey: together with 25 college students they planted a multi-everything church for the Frankfurt metro region. Through the refugee wave that came over Germany, this church multiplied to 15 congregations in 6 years.

Session Summary

In this session Stephen will share his experiences in how to start your discovery group. Thru his examples, he will give practical steps that you can put in place prior and after you start your group. Let the Holy Spirit guide and lead you as you take your first steps in planning and starting your discovery group.

Session 15: Final Overview

REFLECTION QUESTIONS

1. Why is it important to always remember that no matter how far away from God you think people are, the Gospel has the power to save?
2. Is it a failure when only one or even no one shows up to your discovery group? If not, why?
3. Why is it important to have a team when starting your Discovery Group? What are some of the guidelines that you need to share with your team?

PUTTING IT IN ACTION

1. Take time to look at the list of people you created and spend time in prayer asking the Holy Spirit to prepare their hearts to accept the invitation that you will offer.
2. Create your personalized flyer and out your invitation to your list at least three weeks before you start your group.
3. Start a Discovery Group! Let the Holy Spirit lead!
