

Session 7

Active and Practical Bridging

Instructor

STEPHEN BECK PhD

Stephen is a career church planter and church planting instructor. He has served with the Redeemer Church Planting network in Canada, more recently with Greater Europe Mission in Germany. He is considered one of the "cutting edge" Greater Europe Missionaries in this regard. He is Professor of Practical Theology at Freie Theologische Hochschule in Giessen, Germany. He has also been guest lecturer at a number of institutions on the European continent. He is married to Susan, and they have four children. In 2011 Stephen and Susan embarked on yet another journey: together with twenty-five college students they planted a multi-everything church for the Frankfurt metro region. Through the refugee wave that came over Germany, this church multiplied to fifteen congregations in 6 years.

Goals

This 13 session course about contextualization and models for intercultural church planting is one of the most overlooked subjects in the area of congregation multiplication. The course begins with the definition of contextualization and finds in the Bible the guidelines for practicing it in the work of the Kingdom of God. You will learn the theory of contextualizing and you will be given practical tools. You will understand how the Gospel is designed to be contextualized and how you can adapt it to your own church planting situation.

Session Summary

With this lecture Stephen Beck moves into the Practice of bridging from gospel into culture – the ‘how to’. You must understand the many categories of cultural differences across the cultural map (book by Erin Myer), analyze your context demographically and ethnographically.

Fill in the Blanks

1. Look for the books Beck is mentioning at the beginning of the session and study them parallel to this course if you can.
2. What are the two elements of research you need to look for when analyzing the region where you are going to plant a church?

3. Why is research important before contextualization?
