Leading through Crisis

Course Guide

Evi Rodemann

WELCOME!

By taking this course you will not only be learning new information and skills. You will be equipping and empowering yourself with the proper tools to expand the Kingdom of God.

At mosaiXmultiply we believe that creating intercultural church communities in & through God's children, people of all nationalities can be saved. We are committed to create every single course with this goal in mind.

We aim to:

- Raise up, train, and mobilize men and women to plant mosaic
- gospel communities.
Encourage monocultural churches to become mosaics of
- nations and cultures in intercultural reconciliation.
Help local church members realize their church's vision by starting intercultural discipleship groups within their church, thereby creating the dynamic of mission and multiplication.

It is a joy and an honor to partner with you as you seek His guidance to grow in the confidence to expand His Kingdom.

Have a blessed Journey!

Teacher

Evi Rodemann (Hamburg, Germany) is passionate about helping people in various spheres of life to discover their calling and implement their visions and dreams. As a theologian (M.A. in European Mission and Intercultural Christianity) and event manager, she has a particular interest in engaging with young people and developing young leaders within the European context and beyond), inspiring them to engage in God's plan.

Evi's experience, after having lived abroad for a few years, includes hosting and managing major Jesus-focused events in Europe and participating in Lausanne's Younger Leaders Generation Leadership Executive Team. She is also on the leadership team of the World Evangelical Alliance Mission Commission. She recently established the organization LeadNow e.V. (<https://leadnow.events>), is pursuing a PhD part-time on the impact of mission events, and has a personal website here: <https://evirodemann.com>. If you would like to chat with her, it must be over a cup of Earl Grey tea.
